Portions of the retreat were dedicated to collaborating with peers through advisor networking roundtables.

"Chairman's Retreat offers some of our industry's most seasoned and successful advisors the opportunity to come together for a three-day experience, allowing them to reflect on the successes that have brought them to this point and ponder their next level of growth," said Peter Wheeler, vice chairman of Commonwealth and host of this year's retreat. "Advisors who participate in Chairman's Retreat are driven, accomplished independent advisors who run their business with their clients' best interests in mind. The strategies explored during this conference will provide David W.
